Springer. Hardcover. Book Condition: New. Hardcover. 256 pages. Dimensions: 9.1in. x 7.1in. x 0.8in. As more than 90 of spending on the Internet comes from brick and mortar companies it is these operations that will form the client base for e-learning. This book shows those companies how to get e-learning implementation right first time. Don Morisson explores and explains the whole implementation continuum - strategy, vendor selection, technology, implementation, culture change, content development and delivery. Most importantly he stresses that the success or failure of an e-learning initiative is directly related to the underlying strategic thinking. Written for a more mature, second generation e-learning market the book provides a practitioners handbook to both guide the novice and inform the veteran. Focuses on the readers needs Focuses on the strategic issues of e-learning Informed by key business drivers Supported and endorsed by PWCReadership: Senior managers including CEOs, CIOs, CLOs, HR Directors, middle management responsible for implementing and delivering e-learning, consultants This item ships from multiple locations.
