Brand New Book  Print on Demand .the world s alright, it s just the people in it By Paul Navarre How is the world treating you? For many the world s great, it s just the people in it. Every day we interact with all types of people. We know our world is very diverse, full of individuals of different shapes, sizes, colors and with a variety of outlooks on life. This book will become a constant reminder of how we should live life and how we ought to treat others at home; work, at school and at church. You will find this as a simple but very inspirational read. You will also discover that this book will be one that you want to keep on your desk at work, on your nightstand by your bed, or in your briefcase or backpack. You will experience this book to be a source of hope and encouragement. You will discover the 7 chapters in this book to be powerful, scripture-inspired, life changing, and full of real-life experiences. 1.Pass me the Salt- Tells us we are where we are now for a reason. It also gives examples for us to balance family, friends, our work and faith. After reading this chapter you will be motivated to do or say something good or to share a kind act to someone at least once a day. You will notice this chapter is full of real-life stories that will make you laugh and cry. 2.Gone Fishing- Provides common sense approach to dealing with people. It also provides tips how to communicate, and to be an effective listener. This chapter also reminds the Christian/Born-again believer not to be too Heavenly-minded that...
