Index."Rural transformation undergoes a metamorphosis after the introduction of new governance at grassroots through the 73 Amendment to the Constitution of India. Newly created institutions for governance have teething problems and yet they picked up momentum in their dynamics. New concientization takes place in the minds of the people about their role and responsibility and feverish socio-economic activities have been initiated by the institutions and a new kind of relationship has been established between the state government and the grassroots institutions as established between the Central government and State government. Problems, which had not been so far noticed, have come to the surfaces while deepening democracy in the society. A new participatory culture comes to governance at the grassroots and thereby it indicates that it would move towards the other realm of governance. Variety of institutions, both evolved and imposed over a period of..."
