Excerpt from Renaissant Latin America: An Outline and Interpretation of the Congress on Christian Work in Latin America, Held at Panama, February 10-19, 1916 In preparing this condensed account of an epoch-marking conference, the author has been embarrassed by space limitations which have necessitated the omission of much material quite as important as some that has been included. His aim has been to select that which is most typical of the Panama Congress and to omit duplications, so far as the completeness of separate chapters would allow. Repetitions still remain for the reason that a number of the Commissions needed to include material which had been used in a different relation in other reports; and to omit these duplicated portions would mar the completeness of a given Commission's work. The author wishes it to be distinctly understood that this volume has been written with a constant desire to reproduce truly the ideas given expression at the Congress and not to emphasize his own judgments on many of the problems discussed. To that end, and with the...
