Lsu Press, United States, 2010. Paperback. Book Condition: New. New.. 211 x 135 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. Meeting a local woman at a service project in Appalachia, the narrator of Mike Carson s poem Muse hears from her Those words, iron twang of loss, that cut soft ideas of beauty out. Carson s lean, spare collection The Keeper s Voice unflinchingly engages those hard ideas of beauty, of goodness. Direct and often colloquial in their language and traditional in their forms -- blank verse, quatrains, sonnets -- the poems voices arise from a wide range of viewpoints and situations: from an altar boy thawing a frozen gate lock while early Mass goes on without him, to a returning Vietnam veteran who takes up bull riding; from a boy calling cows in the pre-dawn dark, to a narrator providing instructions for teaching crows to talk; from a new cop, a Christian who must shoot to kill in a ghetto bar, to a family discovering the ashes of a stillborn child among a dead sister s belongings. One poem interweaves locker room slogans with phrases from the Requiem Mass for a friend who died playing football; another centers around a single shout from a wife to her husband threatened by an untethered bull.Refreshingly straightforward, yet suffused with weight, maturity, and passion, The Keeper s Voice projects a wise and uncompromising vision.
