Underbelly Authors: They Can (Paperback)

By Ramaswamy Thanu

Createspace, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Large Print. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . The motivation for writing the book and choosing the title came from observations of some literature and TV channels devoting considerable time, effort and attention to project and discuss matters relating to the underbelly. Some friends and parents whom I came across expressed a sad feeling regarding the state of affairs in society adversely affecting character formation of the younger generation. The author reflected on some of the statements these friends and parents made and adhering to their request to consider writing a book on the theme with a view to throw some ideas at improvement, So in all humility and with limited knowledge but with very good intentions an attempt was made to examine the science of underbelly engineering and relating it to the perception of the masters of the past who lived thousands of years ago and their conception of the human body as a sacred instrument designed for a better purpose of serving society. Contemplation and development of this theme resulted in producing this book. It may be read as a piece of...
