Giving in Ancient Days Objects of Charity Author Bio Introduction When I began writing the Science Of Living books, and thinking about the topics on which to write, I came across a subject which is dear to my heart-The ancient practice of giving tithes or just giving from your heart, according to your means. I was about seven years old, when I heard that my father's uncle who had brought him up, went every month to the holy place, and gave 10 of his income to serve the needy and the poor. I am not a Christian, so I did not know that tithes were part of the holy Writ. I just knew that people of our religion had been told by our gurus to give charity, a tenth part of whatever we earned to the needy and the poor. It was called Daswand- the 10th part. When I grew up and started earning, I also kept up the family tradition of giving a Daswand to Mother Teresa's Sisters of Charity orphanage in our city. It took the form of food and clothes for the orphan children and babies. And when I used to come back, I used to feel as if the duty for the month had been done! This sort of spiritual upliftment was not smug complacency and pride in saying, well, just imagine I have given so much money in charity. It was more of a humble feeling that thank you Lord, that you have given me...
