Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Life of George Mifflin Dallas, Vice President of the United States The nominee of the Democratic Convention for the Vice Presidency of the United States, was born in the city of Philadelphia, on the 10th day of July, 1792. He is the youngest son of Alexander James Dallas, one of the most accomplished advocates and distinguished statesmen that have adorned the legal profession of the United States, or sustained in important posts of public trust the principles and policy of the Republican party. His early education was conducted by Mr. Ely and Mr. Robert Andrews, of Philadelphia, both of whom have survived to witness the merited distinction of their pupil. At the age of fourteen, he was entered in Princeton College, and continued there until 1810, when he graduated with the highest honors of his class. He delivered their valedictory address, which is still remembered and adverted to in the college history as a striking example of feeling, eloquence and taste. Indeed, as a public speaker, he gave early promise of that excellence which has since been displayed in many of the prominent situations to which his talents have elevated him; and a published oration, delivered when he was but seventeen years of age, and preserved in the Port Folio, strikingly attests the maturity of his powers. On leaving college, Mr. Dallas commenced the study of the law, in the office of his father, at Philadelphia; and although, in the intervals of that severe study, the more attractive forms of literature and poetry were not unfrequently cultivated, he yet persevered with unceasing application in making himself a thorough master of the great principles of the...
